This Netherworld guide is brought to you by Demon Gal Etna and the Nefarious Angel Flonne!

Anyway, don't bother
reading anything Flonne has to say, because she doesn't make any sense.

"The Nefarious Angel" ...!? Etna, that's so mean! I will use love to make sure everyone enjoys this game to the fullest.

MAIN CHARACTERS

Oh no, Etna! This illustration doesn't have any color! Were they slacking off!?

You shouldn't say things like that or you're gonna piss off the illustrators.

See? Now look at us...

I'm so sorry!

Prinny Squad

Profile

Sex	: Undefined
Age	: Various
Height	: It depends
Weight	: High and low
Likes	: This and that
Dislikes	: That and this
Bio	: They are vassals that were hired by Etna. Most Prinnies have a nonchalant personality. They contain the souls of human criminals.

Character Design Comment

We wanted a group of animalistic vassals...so I thought of demonic birds, which led to penguins... They kinda look scary with their expressionless faces, don't they?

Inside of Prinnies are the souls of humans who committed crimes.

I think their lack of expressions makes them cute.

Laharl

Profile

Sex : Male
Age : 1313
Height : 4'5"
Weight : 83 lbs.(including the scarf)
Likes : Himself
Dislikes : Love, kindness, busty women
Bio : King Krichevskoy's only son. Self-centered to the extreme. His ambition is to become the new Overlord. He absolutely despises words like "love" and "kindness."

Character Design Comment

He is the main character. As a child Overlord, we decided to make him small and energetic. We had him wearing a coat at first, but in order to increase his range of motion, we gave him a scarf. Actually, his scarf was originally wings.

Etna

Profile

Sex	: Female
Age	: 1470
Height	: 4'10"
Weight	: 88 lbs.
Measurements	: B28 W19 H29
Likes	: Living her life freely
Dislikes	: Those who get in the way of her freedom
Bio	: Laharl's vassal. Her ambition rivals that of Laharl's. She reveres the late King Krichevskoy.

Character Design Comment

She is the quintessential devilish nymphet type. She was designed to be like Laharl's older sister.

Flonne

Profile

Sex	: Female
Age	: 1509
Height	: 5'2"
Weight	: 101 lbs.
Measurements	: B30 W20 H31
Likes	: Love, anime, super hero shows
Dislikes	: Anything that opposes love
Bio	: An Angel Trainee who aspires to be an Archangel. She has the right intentions, but can be really off at times. She feels that it is her duty to teach demons how to love. She loves super heroes.

Character Design Comment

A low-level angel birdy who loves love and peace. We made sure she'd contrast nicely with Etna. The ribbon on her head is part of her halo, so it moves according to her emotions.

Vulcanus

Profile

Sex	: Male
Age	: 3649
Height	: 5'8"
Weight	: 163 lbs. (including the wings)
Likes	: Absolute justice, world peace
Dislikes	: Evil things, especially demons
Bio	: He is jealous of Flonne because she is the Seraph's favorite. His jealousy eventually gets the best of him, and he goes crazy. He has his own plans to achieve world peace.

Character Design Comment

We wanted to make a stubborn preacher type. Due to the shape of his face, it looks interesting at times.

Oh man, look at this guy. He looks like the epitome of a bad guy.

Master Vulcanus is a high-ranking angel.

Lamington

Profile

Sex	: Male
Age	: 9147
Height	: 5'10"
Weight	: 154 lbs. (including the wings)
Likes	: Love, nature
Dislikes	: Those who oppose love
Bio	: The leader of Celestia. He is a beautiful angel who is full of love and kindness. He sends Flonne and someone else to the Netherworld to improve the relationship between Celestia and the Netherworld.

Character Design Comment

He is the angels' head honcho. We made his wings extra fancy to make him look more important. He has a strong poker face, so sometimes his subordinates have a hard time reading him.

The Seraph is the leader of Celestia. I really look up to him.

So if I kidnap him, I can become the Queen of Celestia...

Mid-Boss

Profile

Sex : Male
Age : Unknown
Height : 6'0"
Weight : 143 lbs.
Likes : Beauty
Dislikes : Ugliness
Bio : The self-proclaimed Dark Adonis. Always seems to get in the way of Laharl and the others. Thinks of Laharl as his rival. His true intentions are unknown.

Character Design Comment

We wanted the rival of the little kid, Laharl, to be handsome, but we also wanted to contrast his handsomeness with his stupidity.

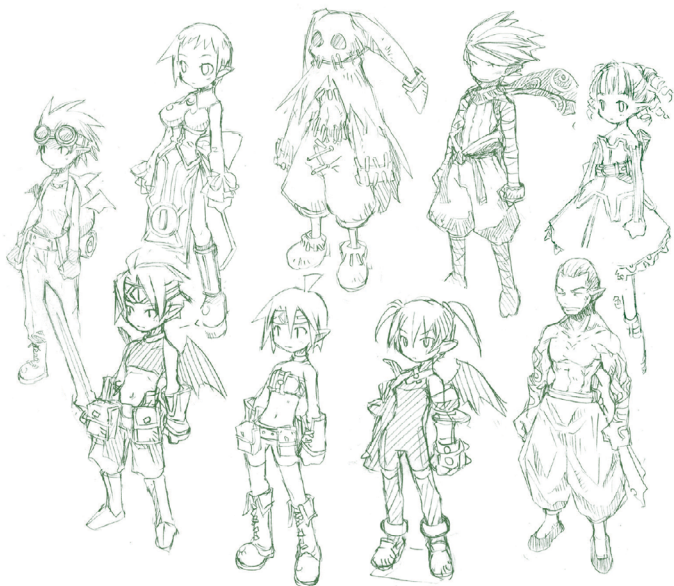

Hell if I know.

What is Mr. Mid-Boss' real name?

GENERIC CHARACTERS

These are rough sketches. Just because they aren't in color doesn't mean the artists were slacking off. Although, I would hate to be a rough sketch.

Don't you remember what happened the last time you complained?

Look, we're Prinnyes now! What are we gonna do!?

This is actually kinda fun. I'm Prinny Flonne, dood! Nice to meet you, dood!

Male Warrior

In the Netherworld, many male residents are born with the potential to become a warrior. Warriors wear light gear to enhance mobility, and they have the ability to harden their bodies instantly. With their aggressive personalities, they have a low capacity for friendship.

Character Design Comment

A light duty warrior. They should be stronger than a basic soldier.

Flonne, you should remember that warriors are adept at using swords.

Hey Etna, these flowers are pretty!

Hey! Pay attention!

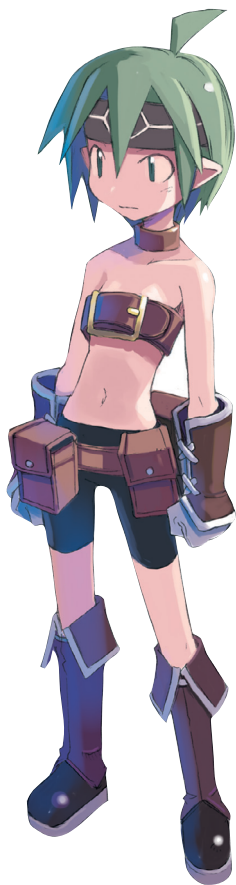

Female Warrior

Since those with the potential to become female warriors are rare, the qualified few are adopted by a master and spend their lives training under them. Their masters are usually retired female warriors. The students are called the Liebe, and they are taught battle techniques and methods of survival.

Character Design Comment

They share a similar design with the males.

This is a girl? Kinda looks like a boy... How cute!

Maybe it is a boy...

There's no way...is there?

Male Martial Artist

A true warrior who pushes himself to his limits. These fighters can battle enemies with guns & swords equally, by using his Dark Hadou. The original master of this martial art is rumored to be a legendary human street fighter. Power is justice and the only truth.

Character Design Comment

We based his design off of a kung fu movie bad guy.

Ready, fight!

Wow, what's gotten into you?

I heard that martial artists go around picking fights with people like this...

I doubt it...

Female Martial Artist

These martial artists come from the outskirts of the Netherworld, the Village of Beasts. This village was originally a place for marriage training for aristocratic women, but such trifles were forgotten over time, and the area became a training ground for female martial artists. Nirvam is the master rank.

Character Design Comment

We tried giving her a gauntlet.

Hey Etna, why did Arthur's biographer go with him to the Old West?

Because she wanted to study a Marshal Art.

What!? How did you know!?

Because only you would come up with a lame joke like that, Florne.

Male Mage

Strong spiritual power is required to use magic, and the skulls' unique costume is designed to strengthen their concentration. Their strange cry is a sign of their trance-like state, and it shows that their concentration is at its peak. At times, this concentration power can reach higher than 200 Polga.

Character Design Comment

We wanted to make him look like a shaman...so we gave him a mask!

This guy looks so weird...

Really? I think he looks cool!

Flonne, your sense of style needs some work.

Female Mage

Magic is the term used to describe the power behind the "Laws of the Seven Spiritual Elements." These laws were proposed by the father of alchemy and Netherworld geology, Vryamid, who also created the Geo Effect. The title of a mage, Troyra, comes from Troylab, which means "self-sacrifice."

Character Design Comment

This was one of the first characters we designed.

Magical Girl Justice
Flonne! Transform!

And off to the next character.

Hey! Don't ignore me!

Male Healer

Unlike most demons, male healers don't like fighting and have no grudge against Celestia. It's sinful to heal the wounds of those who were injured in battle, so the healers' teachings require them to wear barbed robes. Historical records hint that they knew about spiritual elements long before there was any scientific evidence.

Character Design Comment

We made the priest look simple and priestly.

Kinda looks lacking for a demonic priest.

Then what should he look like?

Maybe more evil looking... kinda like Vulcanus. He would be a perfect demonic priest.

Female Healer

It is said that female healers are fallen angels from Celestia who spread healing magic. Different from a male healer, they believe healing a wounded comrade is a necessity. For that reason, they are committed to developing their skills. Their school of magic has famous alumni, such as Serra Winguard.

Character Design Comment

She closes her eyes to enhance her other senses.

Don't say bad things about Master Vulcanus. Rumor has it, those who do receive divine punishment.

I'm a demon. I'm not afraid of divine punishment.

Oh yeah, that's a good point.

Strider

Striders have the ultimate power, in a way, since they can control terrain. Most of the Netherworld's residents look down on them. They have a child-like curiosity, and speak in a dialect unique to their underground cave villages. No one is as skilled in guns as they are.

Character Design Comment

His backpack is actually a character in La Pucelle.

They can control the land?
I could do some interesting things with one of them at my disposal.

Like cover the Netherworld with flowers?
That would be nice...

...Is that the best
you've got?

Magic Knight

Only one demon in a hundred can become a magic knight, a special breed of soldier capable of wielding both magic and swords. It's said that they can see the future using a power called the "Zone." Although they are demons, they have a strong sense of loyalty and will die if they break a sword oath.

Character Design Comment

Has the ability to use both swords and spells.

Okay, I'm fine with her being good at using spells and swords but...that chest of hers... That's just cheating.

You're just jealous because you're flat.

Right back at ya.

Ninja

The ninja are apostles born from the darkness of the Netherworld. Originally assassins, their clan is the most feared by those in power. Under Krichevskoy's rule, they mended their evil ways, and today they are trusted as loyal bodyguards.

Character Design Comment

Yup, that hairstyle is so ninja.

Ninjas are so cool! I want to become one.

Not gonna happen.

How can you be so sure!?

Samurai

As sworn guardians, the samurai have protected Netherworld holy lands for centuries. Since those holy lands were lost in a great cataclysm, many samurai have become professional swordswomen. Though no longer guardians, their purity and pride remain strong in their hearts. Their beliefs are called "Bushido Road."

Character Design Comment

Although she's in traditional attire, she is really exposed.

Her black hair is so pretty.

Yeah... Everyone else's hair is like blue or pink...

I wonder if everyone dyes their hair...

Thief

Stealing is officially recognized as an advanced technique. The Thieves' Guild is the largest organization in the Netherworld. Thieves will steal anything by request, and anyone can join the Thieves' Guild as long as they have the skill. The most legendary of them all is known as the "King of Thieves."

Character Design Comment

When we heard that Mr. Harada was going to be the designer, we decided to make the thief's legs skinny, expecting a lot of the characters to look like this.

You shouldn't steal from others!

But we're demons...

Is that your answer for everything?

Archer

Archers come from the all-female society of Badre, an ice mountain village. They have a unique social system led by the Sevria. Archers can listen to the wind and deduce its strength and direction. Children are born from the roots of the large tree at the center of the village. They only like to use a bow and arrows.

I think I can be friends with her.

Yup, friends indeed.

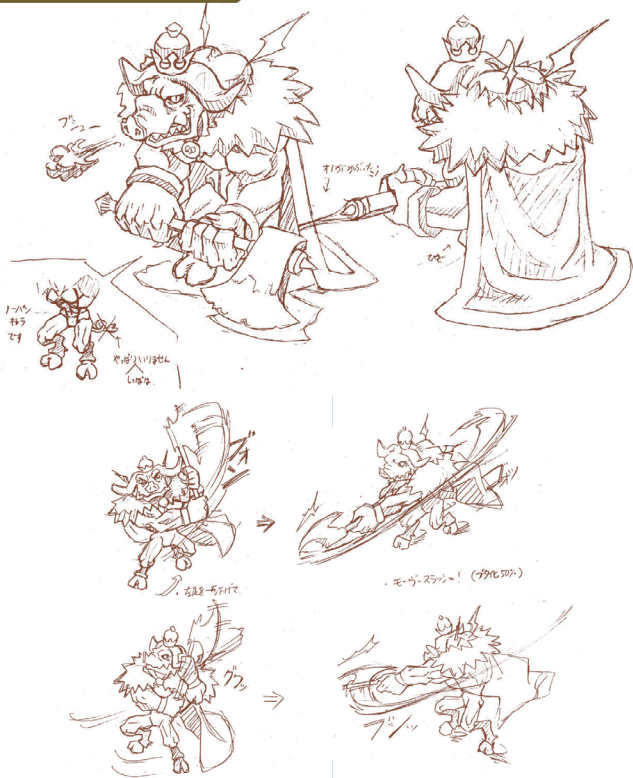

Flat chests unite!

All hail flat chests!

MONSTER CHARACTERS

Nether Noble

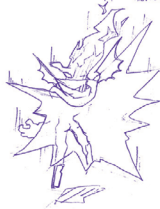

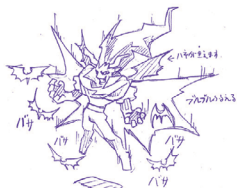

Now we're going to introduce the monster types. This one breathes hard!

He's wearing a crown? Of all the nerve... Is he trying to be the Overlord?

Nosferatu

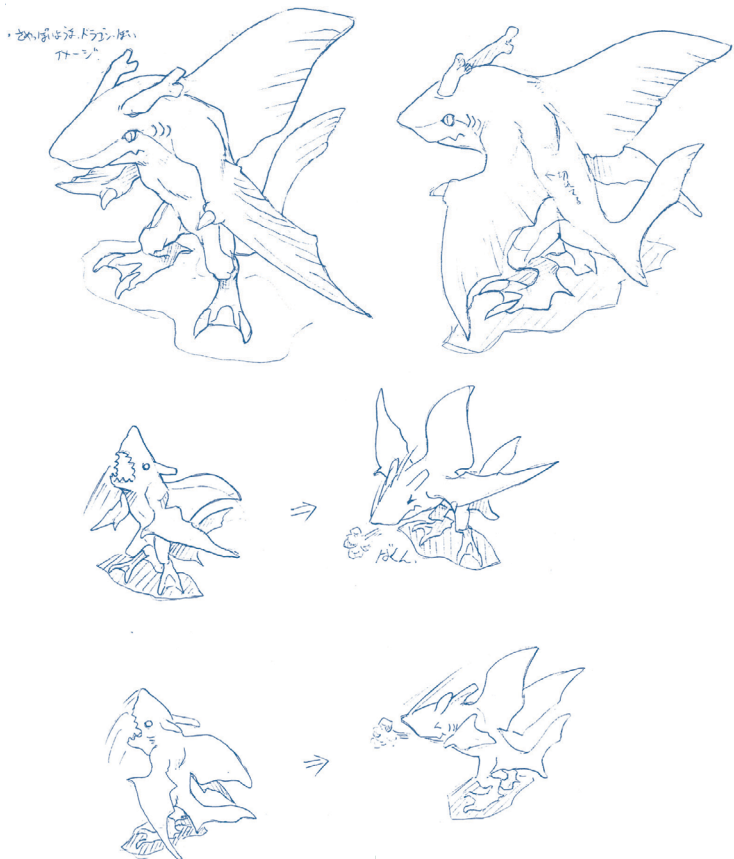

vampires like to suck the blood of beautiful young women. I need to be careful.

Wasn't pure one of the requirements, too?

Shark Dragon

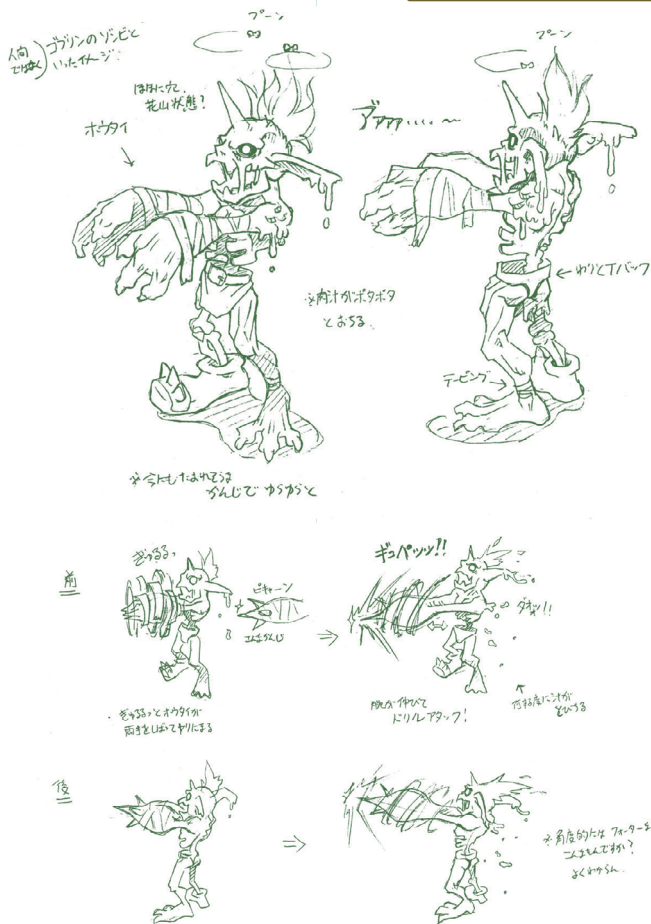

They're called Shark Dragons because they're a combination of a shark and a dragon... They really spent some time on the name...

I think it's nice and easy to remember.

Undead

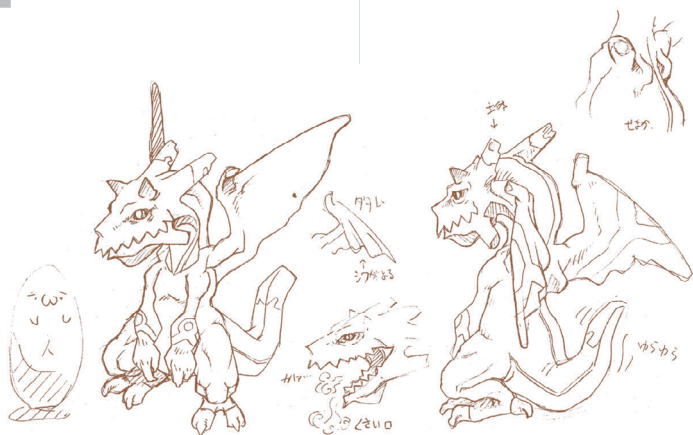

Man, he smells bad...

That's all in your head, Etna...
You just have to take a nice deep breath....!!
